COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Proceedings of the Board—October Meeting.

Office of County Clerk,
Great Bend, Kansas,
October 7th, 1889.

The Board of County Commissioners met in regular session, according to law; present, Henry Schriber, chairman of the board, and H. Langfield commissioner, and D. R. Jones, clerk of said county.

Minutes of last regular and adjourned meetings read and approved. Ordered that tax certificate, sale of 1886, on n w 1 of 30-19-15, be cancelled on account of erroneous sale.

Ordered that the first half of the taxes of 1888, on the n w 1 of 6-17-14 be refunded and the last half rebated. Ordered that tax sale certificate on n w 1 of 30-19-15, tax of 1885, be cancelled, on account of land not being taxable.

Ordered that tax sale certificate on s w 1 of n e 1 of 30-19-15, sale of 1884, be cancelled on account of erroneous sale.

Ordered that tax deed on s e 1 of 14-17-13 be called in, on account of erroneous sale.

In the matter of petition of I. N. Goatsley and others for the appointment of Dr. D. B. Shaut as county physician for third commissioner district, to fill the vacancy made by the removal of Dr. Megan, prayer of petitioners granted, and it is hereby ordered that Dr. D. B. Shaut be and is appointed to fill said vacancy, at same salary as paid to Dr. Megan.

Ordered that W. W. Carney and H. J. Roetzel be and are hereby appointed to examine the county treasury for the quarter ending Dec. 31, 1889.

On motion all the proposals for building four iron bridges for the county were opened and carefully considered. The bids not being satisfactory to the board, all bids were rejected, and, ordered, that new proposals be received until 3:00 p. m., Oct. 10, 1889, the board reserving the right to reject any or all bids.

The second proposals for building of bridges being received, and opened, the board proceeded to inspect the several plans and specifications, and after a prolonged discussion the board adjourned to meet Oct. 12, 1889.

Oct. 12, 1889, 9:00 a. m. Board met pursuant to adjournment, present Commissioners Schriber and Langfield. The second proposals for building bridges were again taken up, and carefully considered, with the following result: Ordered, that the building of an 80 foot bridge across Wet Walnut creek, on the line between sec. 7-19-13, and sec. 12-19-14, capacity to be 1280 pounds per lineal foot, at a cost of $953.00; and also an 80 foot bridge, same capacity, across Cow creek, on the line between sec. 31-17-11, and sec. 26-17-12, at the same price ($953.00), be awarded to the Geo. E. King Bridge Co. Ordered, that a 60 foot bridge, capacity 1280 pounds per lineal foot, to be built across Dry Walnut creek on the line between sec. 21 and 22-19-15, at a cost of $860.00; and a 60 foot bridge of same capacity, across Blood creek, on the line between sec. 29 and 34-17-14, at the same price, be awarded to the Severs Manufacturing Company; provided said 60 foot spans be built.

HOME AND FARM,

LOUISVILLE, KY.

The Leading Agricultural Journal of the South and West.

Made by Farmers for Farmers.

As a record of successful agriculture, HOME AND FARM has no equal. Every topic relating to agriculture is openly discussed in its columns by the farmers themselves. No expense is spared in securing a full account of every notable success on the farm. It is distinctively the FARMER'S OWN PAPER.

A record of their daily life, presented in a form and language which make it plain to all.

ITS LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

Contains the names of the most progressive farmers of the South and West. They do not treat of theoretical farming, but of the actual conditions which confront us today: B. F. Johnson, Waldo F. Brown; Henry Stewart; John M. Stahl; A. P. Ford; Jeff. Welborn; Hugh T. Brooks; John C. Edgar; Steele's Bayou; T. A. Baldwin and a host of others make this journal indispensable. Moreover, it is equally

A HOME MAGAZINE.

Every subject of interest to the home-maker is fully treated. Mary Marsden, Lois Cateby, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Davies, Miss Cabell, Miss Moody, Alice Winston and a score of others will contribute regularly.

FAITH LATIMER

Is in charge of our Children's Department, and she has the peculiar faculty of being both interesting and instructive. Short stories by distinguished writers appear from time to time.

THE MYSTERY OF THE NATION

Is a thrilling story appearing in HOME AND FARM, by John H. Musick, and is exciting wide attention. Short stories by distinguished writers appear from time to time.

BILL ARPS LETTERS

Appear in each issue, and this humorous philosopher was never more interesting than at this time.

IN ITS EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

HOME AND FARM speaks boldly and fearlessly in behalf of "Farmers' Rights." It favors a revision of the tariff in behalf of the farmer, roads for the farmer; Free Mail Delivery to the farmer; Co-operation among the farmers, and its aim is to "Bust Trusts." Its motto is "Fair Trade and Farmers' Rights."

HOME AND FARM will be furnished with the DEMOCRAT, for $1.75 per year, to all persons who hand in their subscriptions before the first of January, 1890.

From all points in Kansas to Kansas City, St. Louis and the East and North.
